

WELCOME TO MOOR HALL HOTEL & SPA

Family owned for more than 50 years, Moor Hall has a long and colourful history and for many centuries it has echoed with the sound of merrymaking and laughter.

The original Moor Hall was built around 1527 when Bishop Vesey lived here with his retinue of 140 men and Henry VIII is said to have been a frequent visitor. The current Moor Hall was built by Colonel Edward Ansell of brewery fame in 1904 and he lived here with his wife, two children and 10 servants. The lounge bar and Oak Room restaurant still feature the sumptuous wood panelling and ornate carvings of Colonel Ansell's construction.

So from entertaining King Henry VIII to being the country home of one of the Midlands' most prosperous brewing families, Moor Hall is steeped in a tradition of hospitality that can be felt today in the warm welcome that our team extend to all our guests.

Our Lounge Bar and Terrace offer a more informal dining option. Available from 8.30am until 9.30pm every day, you can enjoy snacks, light bites, a full meal or a delicious afternoon tea. Plus, our extensive drinks menu means you can enjoy your favourite drink whilst relaxing beside the cosy fires or looking out over the fabulous views.

We hope you enjoy your time here at Moor Hall and look forward to welcoming you again soon.
